When You Join MAFE

The Montana Association for Female Executives, founded in 1980, offers an exciting network of professional women sharing the following purposes:

- ◇ To increase public awareness of the significant and diverse accomplishments of women. To promote, recognize and advance women into leadership positions in the public and private sectors.
- ◇ To provide a forum for women in leadership to exchange ideas, experiences, goals and awareness of issues in the community, state and nation.
- ◇ To promote associations among members and empower them to influence decisions and advance their personal and collective goals.

Luncheon meetings are held at noon on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. Each meeting features a program. A business meeting is held periodically.

Members evaluate and share comments about programs and events through our annual survey. Committee members and officers use these comments to plan for each year.

MAFE members represent all areas of business, nonprofit organizations and education.

Membership in MAFE provides opportunities for professional women to build an informal exchange and create channels for gathering information, building support and getting this done.

Programs

MAFE programs feature speakers on current topics, including: professional development; community issues; management trends; personal development; economic trends and issues; and health related trends and concerns.

Leadership Opportunities

MAFE Committees include membership, public relations, programs, accommodations, networking and the annual retreat.

Newsletter, Directory, Website and Social Media

MAFE publishes an annual membership directory with quarterly updates.

A newsletter is published three times a year and includes information on new members, programs, business topics and highlights of activities.

The website contains member and program information, membership forms, event pictures and other general information. We host other social media sites, also.

Social Events

Social events during the year provide members and their guests an opportunity to network in an informal setting. Socials usually include after work gatherings and a holiday party.

Annual Retreat

In the fall, MAFE members and guests attend a retreat weekend featuring personal and professional development complemented by fun and relaxation.
